

ABOUT

Singer/Songwriter Rascal Martinez hails from the Mid-west. Rascal grew up in a small Nebraska town, where he went from recording albums in a home basement studio to the professional studios of Nashville, Tennessee.

Channeling a mix of Indie-folk and country, Rascal Martinez's unique Americana-style roots music elicit memories of Buddy Holly and early Van Morrison. Rascal delivers accessible and heartfelt originals, as well as an impressive catalogue of covers and standards.

"It's amazing how full Rascal sounds with such a plug-in. The change in the room from the first chord was palpable. The room comes alive as the audience danced and joined Rascal." - W.C. Turck, WCGO Chicago

FAR FROM HOME

 Listen on Apple Music

 Spotify®

 amazonmusic

SOCIAL

 YouTube

400 subscribers
Greater than 63,000 views

 FACEBOOK

Over 22,000 Likes

 INSTAGRAM

Over 9,000 followers

www.rascalmartinez.com

PRESS

“Rascal and his brother Marcello Sanchez on drums, took to the stage and engaged the crowd with their energy, Rascal’s growling voice filling the air with moody originals along with familiar old tunes. Within just a few songs in, he had the crowd on their feet.”

- City of Winslow, AZ

“Every kid wants to be a rock star when they grow up — or an astronaut, a wizard, a ballerina or maybe even a dinosaur. The point is, we all have dreams, and sometimes, they’re impractical. One day, Rascal Martinez woke up and realized he was living that dream.”

- The Daily Nebraskan

“It’s dangerous but natural in rock and roll to evoke comparisons with other musicians. Rock is replete with pretenders, borrowers and copycats, but once in a great while comes an artist who channels a spirit with a fresh yet familiar and resonant style.”

- WC Turck, AM1710 Chicago